CHIEF OF SINNERS, LEAST OF SAINTS ST. MARK THE EVANGELIST Patron Saint of Barristers and Notaries

St. Mark was an evangelist in the earliest days of the Church. Tradition holds that he is the author of the Gospel of Mark, which is the shortest of all the New Testament Gospels. He vividly portrays the life of Christ, especially Christ's messages about the Kingdom of God. St. Mark traveled to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas, spreading the message of Christ. Many believe St. Mark was the first Bishop of Alexandria. He is often depicted as a winged lion. The image of wings is a reference to Ezekiel's vision of the four-winged creatures which is interpreted as the evangelists.

MARCH RECAP:

The LIVING LAST SUPPER

From Sabor de la Door: “Thank you everyone who came out for this beautiful event. We’re excited to be part of the La Última Cena en Vivo - Living Last Supper with the Community Choir of Door County and Prince of Peace Lutheran Church Sturgeon Bay. A powerful live retelling with music, actors, and a bilingual feature included this year!

Thank you for the donations that will support Sabor de la Door, Door County’s very own Hispanic Heritage Celebration!”

CONGREGATIONAL POTLUCK

On Sunday, March 8, our congregation enjoyed a “Spring Forward” potluck, organized by the Life Together Committee, raising $250 towards our flood recovery efforts. We had a great turnout, with 100 people in attendance. Special thanks to the volunteers who helped with setup on Saturday, as well as those who assisted on Sunday with preparation, serving, and cleanup. It was a fun event, and wonderful to have so many friends and members of our congregation attend to share a meal and enjoy time together. Life Together Committee

EASTER BAGS FOR LOCAL YOUTH

Thank you to everyone who donated to the Easter Treat drive for the kids serviced by Lake Shore CAP. The generosity of our members filled four large grocery bags and will help bring joy to many of our local youth.
